Office of the R.L.A.

Attention is invited to sections 23 and 24 of the Bombay General Clauses Act, 1904. "As descriptive of the publishing of laws and Ordinances " "publication" means printing or otherwise reproducting copies of them and distributing them in such a manner as to make their contents easily accessible to the public (see p. 1463-64 of Black's Law Dictionery).

The object of publishing the Gazette is to give publicity to the Orders etc. notified therein. A reasonable mumber of copies must be prepared and made available to the press and the subcribers to the Gazette. Serious repurcussion may be expected if publication in the Gazette of Acts that take effect under section 5 of the General Clauses Act, (Bom. I of 1904)., on the date of publication and Orders under the Defence of India Rules are contained in a Gazette of which only one copy is published.

The mere posting of a copy in howsoever prominent a place cannot be said to fulfil the requirements of sections 23 and 24 of the Bombay General Clauses Act,1904.
